medical therapy of acute myocardial infarction: part I. role of thrombolytic and antithrombotic therapy (Jafri et al) 1995;10:54 (Analytic review)
Fistula

tracheoarterial fistula: an unusual complication of tracheostomy (Schaefer and Irwin) 1995;10:64 (Analytic review)

Follow-up studies follow-up of NICU graduates: let's not throw the baby out with the bathwater (Allen) 1995;10:209 (Editorial) follow-up of NICU graduates: why, what and by whom (McCormick et al) 1995;10:213 (Analytic review)

Fungi
invasive aspergillosis in a patient with bronchocentric granulomatosis (Fraire and Doern) 1995;10:3 (Editorial)
spinal Aspergillus abscess in a patient with bronchocentric granulomatosis (Collier et al) 1995;10:45 (Case report)

Gastric tonometry gastric tonometry: a new monitoring modality in the intensive care unit (Gutierrez and Brown) 1995;10:34 (Analytic review)

Granuloma
invasive aspergillosis in a patient with bronchocentric granulomatosis (Fraire and Doern) 1995;10:3 (Editorial)
spinal Aspergillus abscess in a patient with bronchocentric granulomatosis (Collier et al) 1995;10:45 (Case report)

Heart
calcium administration for cardiovascular support in critically ill patients: when is it indicated? (Jankowski and Vincent) 1995;10:91 (Analytic review)

Hemofiltration
prospective study of continuous venovenous hemodiafiltration in critically ill patients with acute renal failure (Bellomo et al) 1995;10:187 (Review of large clinical series)

Hemorrhage
hyperviscosity syndrome (Gertz and Kyle) 1995;10:128 (Analytic review)

Hemorrhagic disease of newborn late hemorrhagic disease of newborn: a fatal presentation of hepatobiliary disease masquerading as shaken baby syndrome (Shemie and Cutz) 1995;10:315 (Analytic review)

Hepatobiliary disease. See Liver diseases

Hypertension, pulmonary persistent pulmonary hypertension of newborns: role of nitric oxide (Kourembanas) 1995;10:270 (Analytic review)

Hyperviscosity syndrome hyperviscosity syndrome (Gertz and Kyle) 1995;10:128 (Analytic review)

Hypocalcemia
calcium administration for cardiovascular support in critically ill patients: when is it indicated? (Jankowski and Vincent) 1995;10:91 (Analytic review)
